

OMEGA PSI PHI FRATERNITY

Omega Psi Phi Fraternity was founded on November 17, 1911, at Howard University, Washington, D. C., by four men, Frank Coleman, Edgar A. Love, Oscar J. Cooper, and Ernest E. Just.

Mu Psi Chapter of Omega Psi Phi Fraternity was chartered in 1927. Since that time, Mu Psi men have worked hard at maintaining the four cardinal principles — Manhood, Scholarship, Perseverance and Uplift.

“Cheers to Omega, long may you live, Our love and devotion we promise to give. We offer our services day by day, and promise to help you in every way. Long may you live, may you never die, we are proud to be men of Omega Psi Phi.
